This riverfront, cedar log home offers relaxing surroundings with luxurious accommodations. With nearby lake access, the location of the home is great for getting away from it all. Or, if you are an adventurer, there are plenty of activities to keep you busy: white-water rafting, hiking, canoeing and off-road ATV trails.

The two-story, cedar log home offers three bedrooms (two queen-size beds, two twin beds, and a queen-size sleeper sofa), two full baths, and a great room with a rock fireplace, kitchen, and dining room.

Perfect for the family vacation or a romantic getaway for two, this secluded cedar log cabin is nestled in a picturesque valley among three wooded acres on the banks of the Nottely River, just outside of Murphy, North Carolina. The Great Smoky Mountains surround the area and provide spectacular views, as well as an abundance of outdoor activities.

Enjoy beautiful sunsets over the mountains from rocking chairs on the wrap-around porch or reading by the magnificent river stone fireplace. As evening nears, drift off to the sound of whip-o-wills in the distance and the glow of fireflies illuminating the sky. In the mornings, awaken to the melody of geese circling the nearby lakes.

The cabin offers spacious vaulted family and dining rooms, a sleeping loft, two bedrooms and two bathrooms, and is comfortably furnished.
